WE, THE CLASS OF
1990, PRESENT A
PICTORIAL REVIEW OF
OUR SENIOR YEAR AT
WOBURN HIGH SCHOOL.

WE'RE TAKING A STEP FORWARD

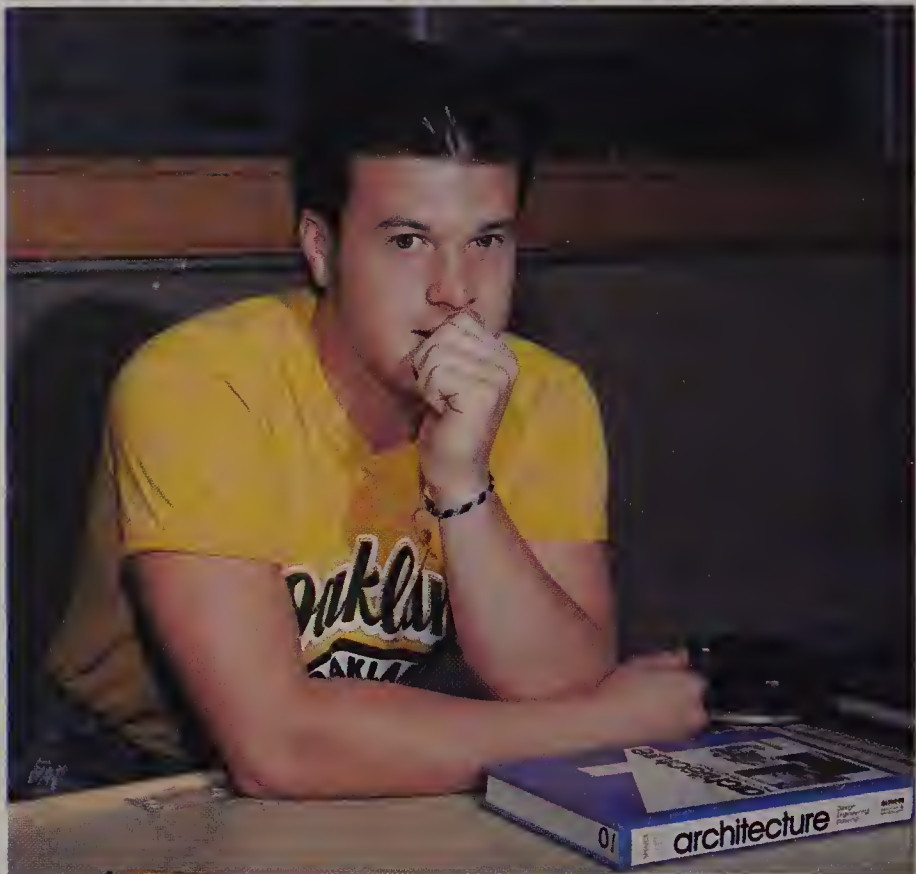

WE'VE GOT A SENSE OF STYLE

WE'RE MAKING OUR MARK

WE'RE SHOWING OUR TRUE COLORS.

WE'RE OFF TO A GOOD START

WE'RE IN TOUCH

WE'RE JUST PLAIN CLASSY

WE'RE SET FOR A NEW BEGINNING

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1990, wish to use the Yearbook dedication as a way to repay a small part of what a certain staff member has given to us during our years at Woburn High.

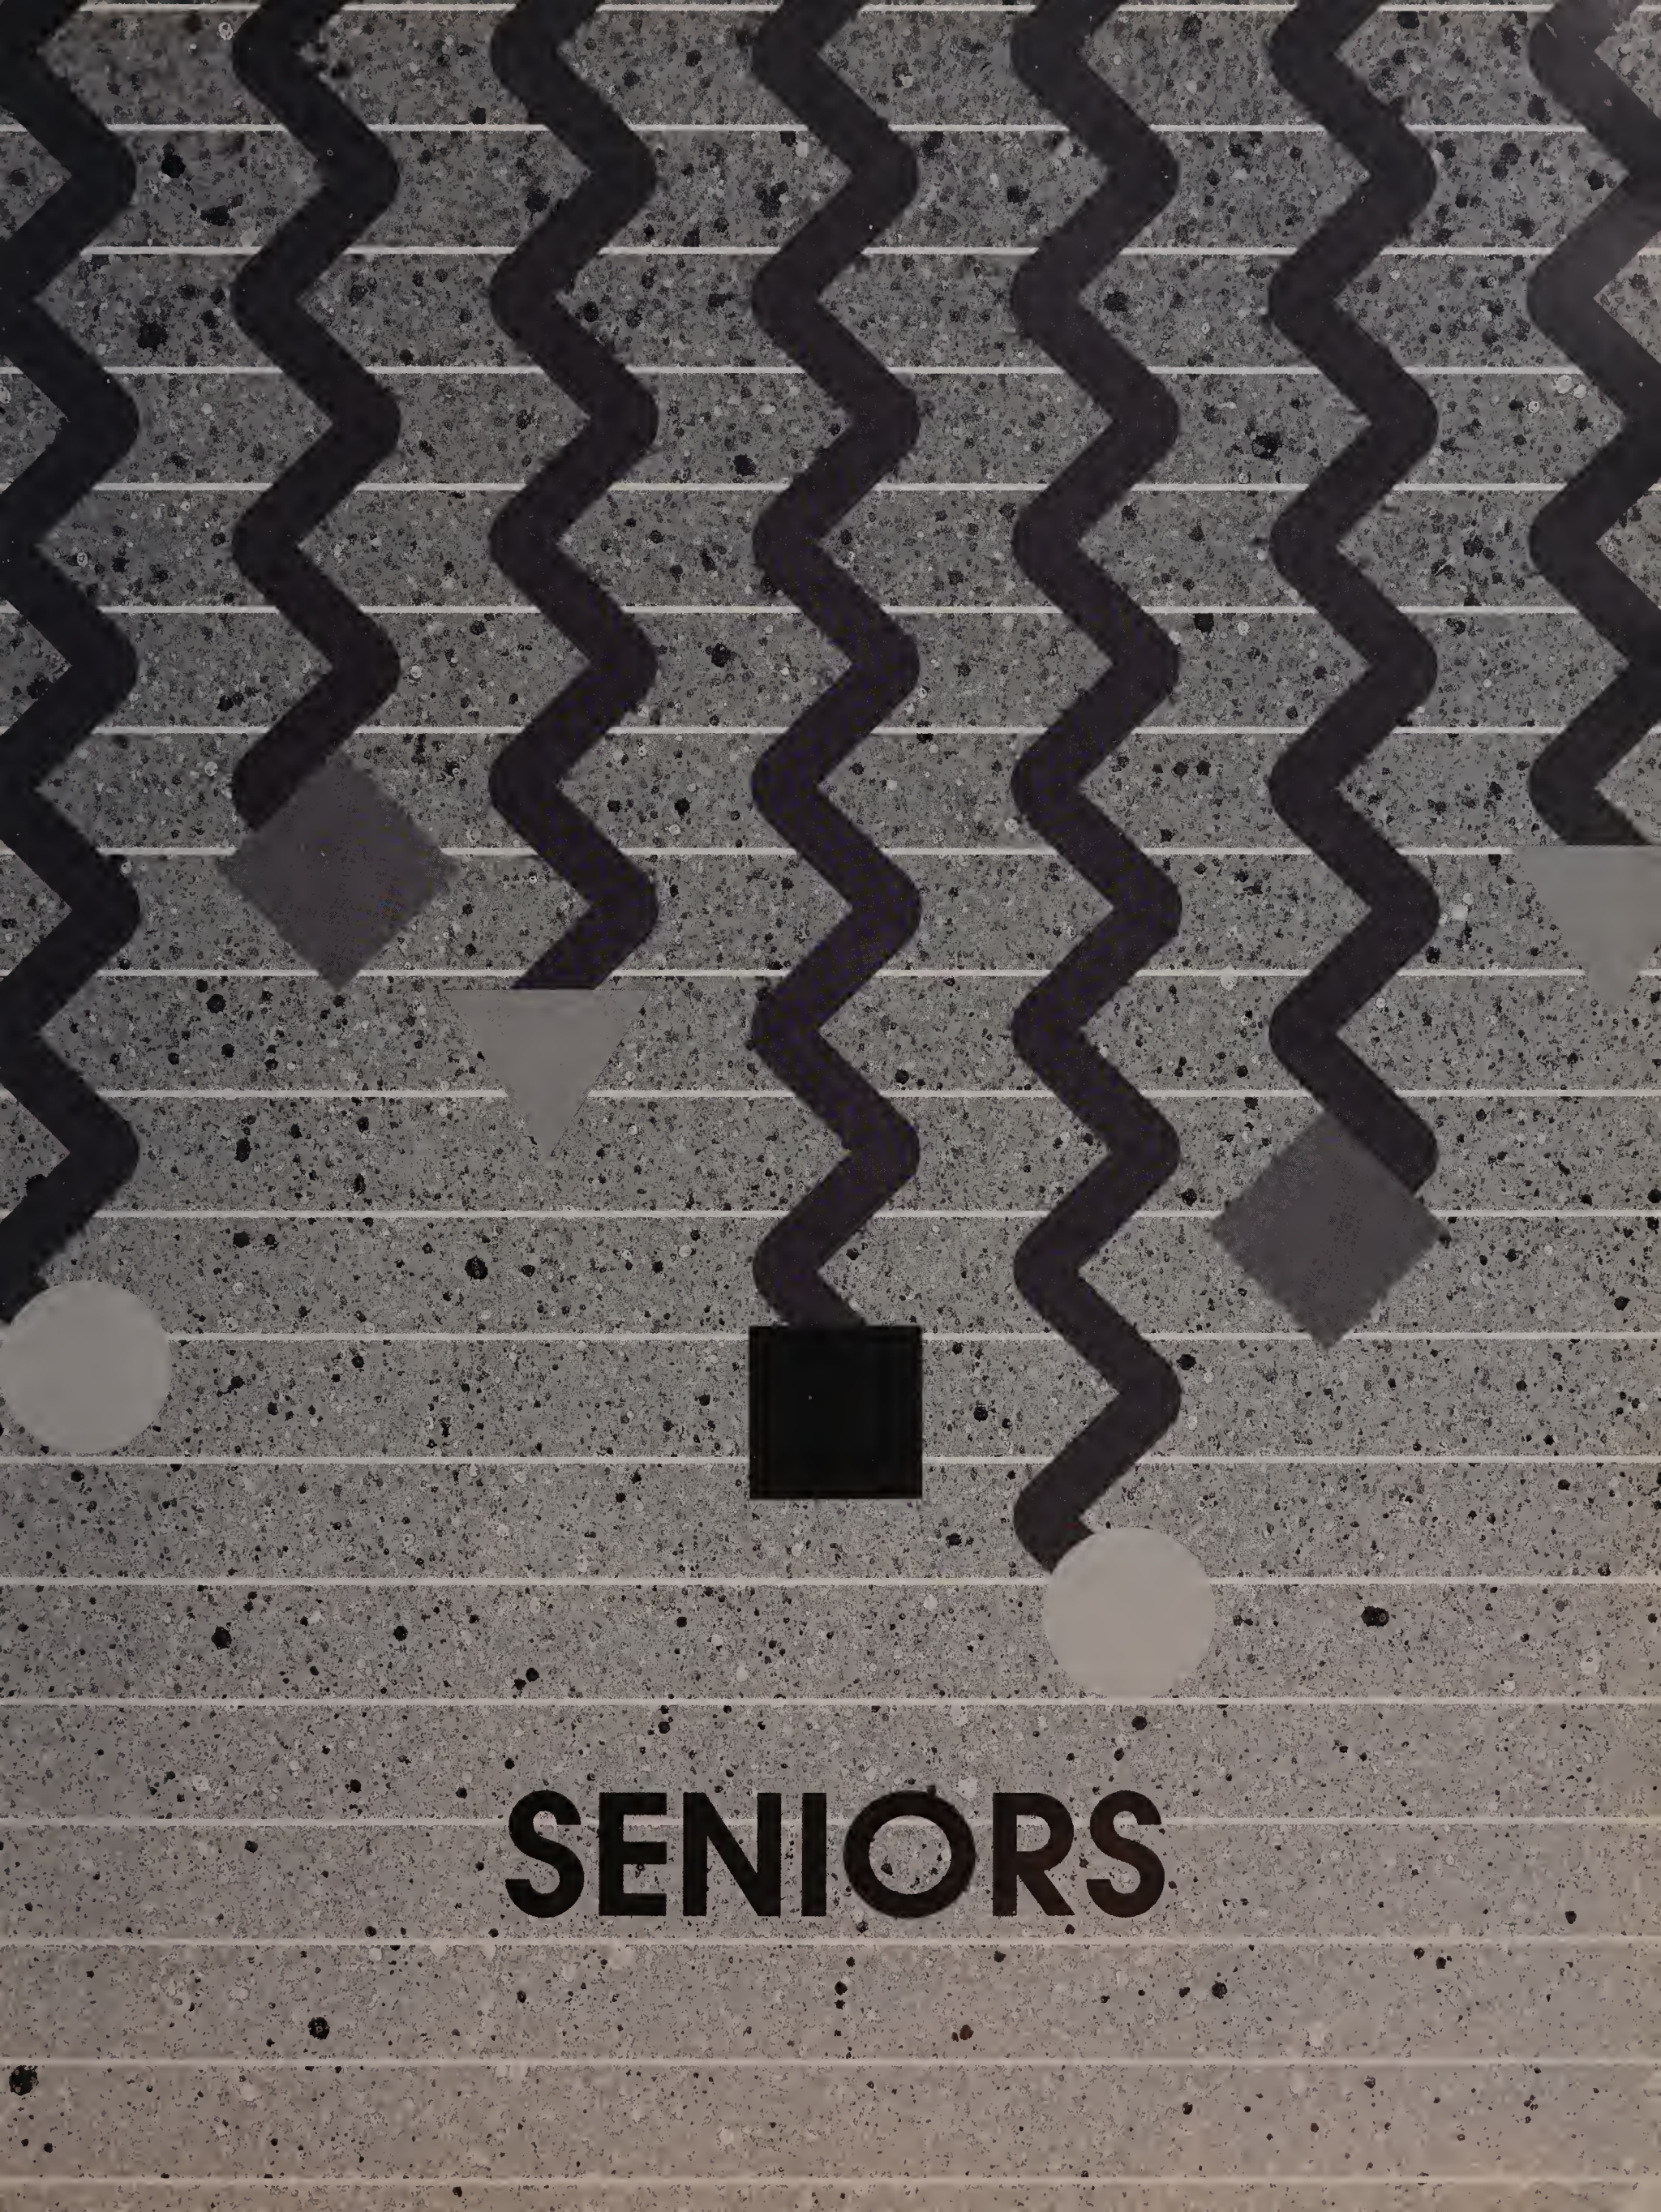

This person has helped us to successfully complete our many academic and extra-curricular activities by assisting us in a friendly, sincere, and unselfish manner. She has always been willing to help, no matter what the situation might be.

We say "Thank you" by dedicating the 1990 INNITOU to:

Mrs. Anne Lavacchia

The background is a dark, speckled grey texture. Overlaid on this is a repeating pattern of thick, dark grey zigzag lines. Interspersed among these lines are various geometric shapes in different shades of grey and black: squares, triangles, circles, and diamonds. Some shapes are solid, while others are semi-transparent, creating a layered effect.

ATHLETICS

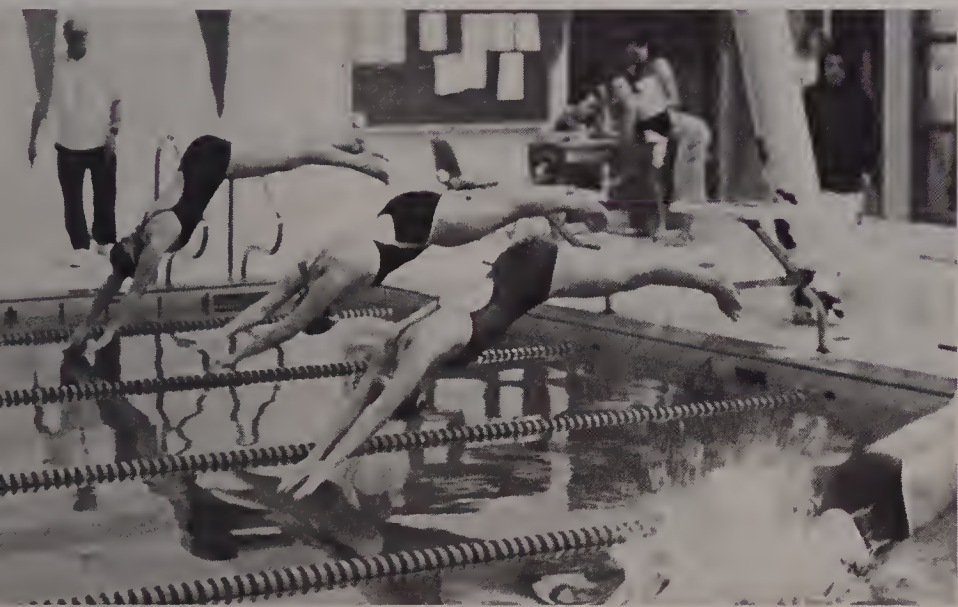

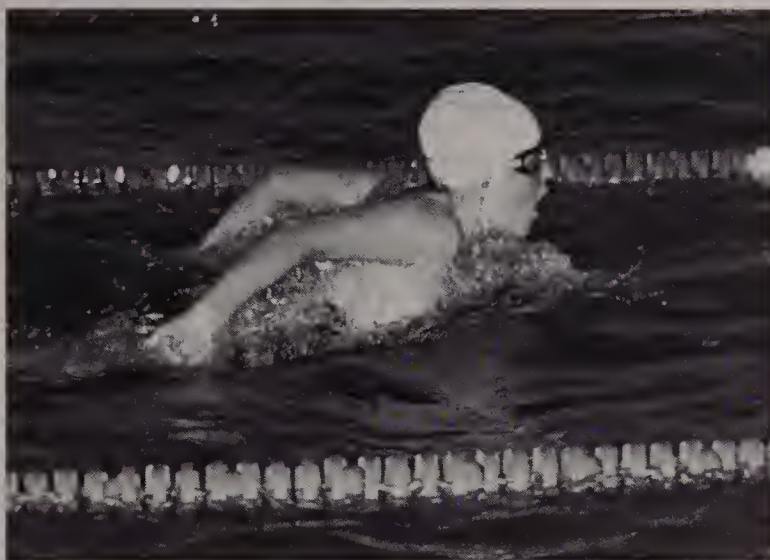

SWIM TEAM

Although the Tannerettes were winless, their season can be considered successful because of the improvement made by the entire team throughout the year. Many new school records were established by underclassmen and the future looks bright ahead. Danielle DuBois, Laura Farrey, and Melinda Peterson were the record setters on the team.

The Tannerettes were led by senior captains Christina Lombardo, Lori Silva, and Kathy McCabe. Other seniors contributing to the efforts of the team were Lynne O'Brien, Nicole Travelo, Laurie Lisacki, and Sandy Mullen.

Some highlights of the season were holding Lexington to 2-0, Nicole Travelo's first goal in the second half against Melrose, and in the Wakefield game when the team out shot them 6-0 and got nine corners to their two.

Defense did an outstanding job throughout the entire season. There was a definite improvement in the team as the season progressed.

GIRLS SOCCER

Co-captains Melinda Steadman and Julie Donaghey led the girls soccer team to the best record ever recorded by a Woburn team. The 7-7-4 record included a victory over Wakefield for the first time. Award winners for the year were Stacey Nutile (MVP), Jennifer Connolly (Most Dedicated), and Melinda Steadman (Coaches' Award).

The background is a light gray, speckled texture. Overlaid on this is a dark gray, repeating zigzag pattern that runs diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right. Scattered throughout the composition are several solid geometric shapes: a square, a triangle, a circle, and a diamond, all in varying shades of gray and black. These shapes are positioned at various points, some appearing to be part of the zigzag pattern and others floating independently.

FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT — ADMINISTRATION

To the Graduates in the Class of 1990,

First, my congratulations to each of you and your fine families on the completion of your high school years here in Woburn.

As students, you enter a very changing world but a world in which you have the opportunity to impact on change and make our country a far better place to live and work.

The citizens of Eastern Europe led by students not much older than yourselves rose up to free themselves from decades of fear and oppression. In just over a year, totalitarian governments in Poland, East Germany, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, and Czechoslovakia fell to people demanding democracy.

Led by students, that spirit of democracy continues to spread, particularly within the Soviet Union.

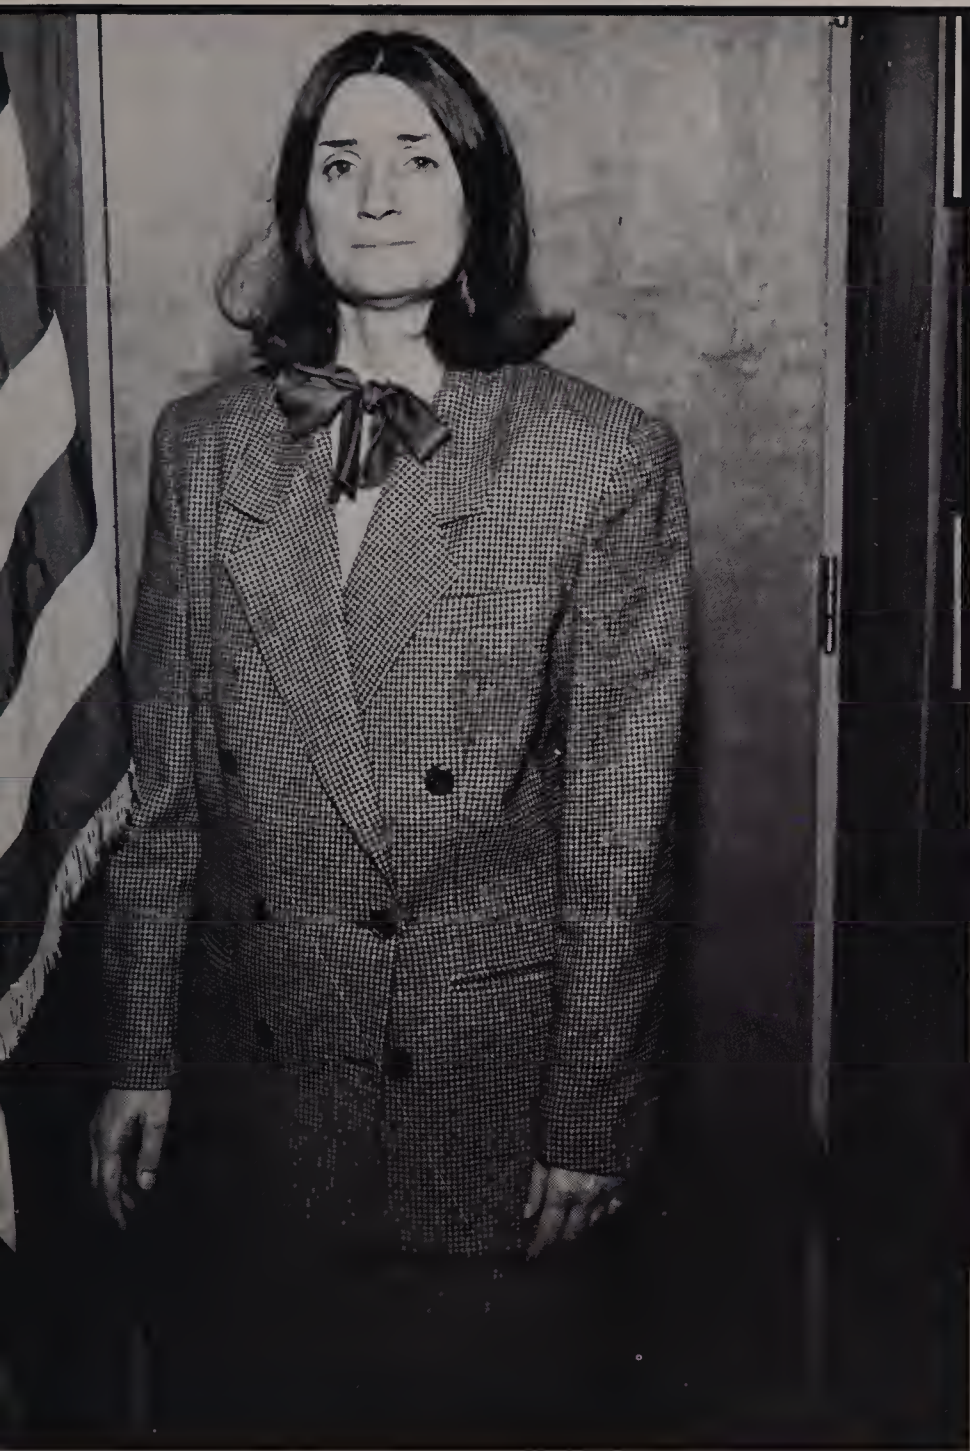

The events in Eastern Europe and elsewhere are a testament to the power and ability of young people to shape a better world for themselves and all of us.

May part of your future years be spent working to improve our Country, State, and City so that students graduating from Woburn High School during the next century will have gained from your efforts.

PRINCIPAL

To the members of the Class of 1990, I extend congratulations and my sincere best wishes for success, health and happiness.

Your years at Woburn High School have encouraged you, as individuals, to grow and to function in order to meet the needs of our complex society.

With a spirit of mutual concern and respect, you have developed skills, habits and behavior methods that will prove to be the basis of your success in the future years.

Through a rich educational environment, you have been instructed with knowledge and values which, combined with a spirit of inquiry, will allow you to continue to learn and to make sound analytical judgments.

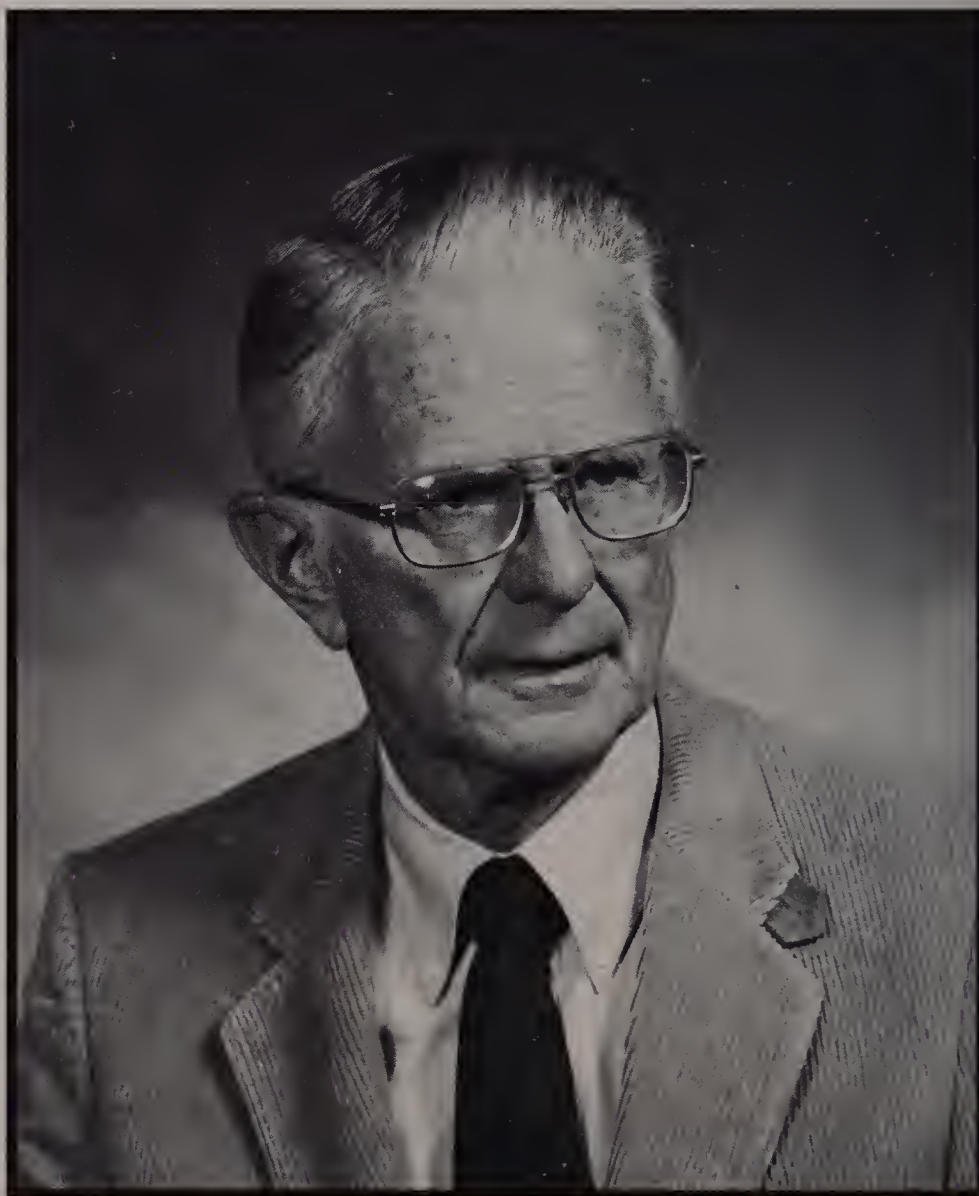

As your success in high school was proportionate to your efforts — so shall your efforts determine the outcome of your future endeavors.

May everything you do be the best you can do.
